MAHB Group Anti-Bribery and Corruption Policy and Procedures are applicable to our directors, employees and associated persons and compliance to the Anti-Bribery and Corruption Policy and Procedures are mandatory.

The key principles of the MAHB Group Anti-Bribery and Corruption Policy and Procedures are:

a. Prohibition of giving or receiving bribes or participate in any form of bribery and corruption in its business dealings.
b. Prohibition of the giving and receiving of gifts and entertainment, including donations and sponsorships, whether directly or indirectly with the intention to bribe, to retain or gain a business advantage, or for personal gain.
c. Prohibition of activities that may give rise to actual or potential conflict of interest which could result in actual or potential bribery and corruption risk to Etiqa.
d. Prohibition of making facilitation payments by the directors and employees
e. The engagements of third parties and associated persons, and dealings with customers and third parties and associated persons must not be for the purpose of inducing or obtaining or retaining business, gaining an unfair advantage or influencing a government or regulatory decision for Etiqa or for personal gain;

We also take this opportunity to urge our customers and related parties to observe and support our zero-tolerance stance towards corruption and bribery and the applicable law and regulations in relation thereto when conducting any business with us or/for or on our behalf.

Channels for Raising a Concern

Concerns in relation to the misconduct or unethical practices including bribery and corruption related to Etiqa, whether directly or indirectly, can be raised via the Whistleblowing channels.